

Welcome + Opening Prayer

THEMATIC OVERVIEW

The way Jesus has radically neighbored each of us.

Luke 10:25-37

See passage printed on the back of this page.

Explore + Apply

1. What is something you want to remember from worship this week?
2. What is something you want to do (or do differently) because of worship this week?
3. How has Jesus been a radically generous neighbor to you? How does this shape the way you see your neighbors? What would it look like for you to grow in generosity toward your neighbors?

PRAYER GUIDELINES

In prayer, we ask God to transform us and the world with His grace.

Pray

- Spend time praising God for his radical mercy toward us, not letting cost get in the way of restoring us to relationship with him.
- Pray and listen: Will you ever be able to show mercy more than you've allowed yourself to receive?
- Imagine West Seattle, greater Seattle, our country, and the world shaped by the radical generosity of Christian neighbors toward their neighbors? Pray God's Kingdom come on earth as it is in heaven.

Home Groups are a vital part of shared life and growth in Christ. Here, we build community, deepen relationships, and discover and live the Christian life together.

Luke 10:25-37

25 On one occasion an expert in the law stood up to test Jesus. “Teacher,” he asked, “what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

26 “What is written in the Law?” he replied. “How do you read it?”

27 He answered, “‘Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind’;

and, ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’”

28 “You have answered correctly,” Jesus replied. “Do this and you will live.”

29 But he wanted to justify himself, so he asked Jesus,

“And who is my neighbor?”

30 In reply Jesus said: “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, when he was attacked by robbers. They stripped him of his clothes, beat him and went away, leaving him half dead. 31 A priest happened to be going down the same road, and when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side. 32 So too, a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side.

33 But a Samaritan, as he traveled, came where the man was; and when he saw him, he took pity on him. 34 He went to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he put the man on his own donkey, brought him to an inn and took care of him. 35 The next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper. ‘Look after him,’ he said, ‘and when I return, I will reimburse you for any extra expense you may have.’

36 “Which of these three do you think was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of robbers?”

37 The expert in the law replied, “The one who had mercy on him.”

Jesus told him, “Go and do likewise.”
