

Welcome.

All Souls, seeking to be a church not just for ourselves, exists to be a vibrant expression of who God is— gracious, present, hospitable.

Launched in 2010, we are a worshipping community rooted in the belief that the historic Christian gospel is true, compelling, and promises to change our lives powerfully, in the direction of freedom, wholeness, and hope.

We seek to embody and articulate this gospel of grace, bringing about spiritual, social, and cultural renewal in Seattle and, through it, the world.

Please feel the freedom to participate actively in worship or to just listen and observe at your discretion. It is a time to process freely and safely the audacious claims of Jesus, and the inevitable tension between the beauty and scandal of God's grace, freely given to you.

Exploring?

Do you have questions about the Christian faith?

Do you wrestle with intellectual barriers that make belief seem implausible, even irresponsible?

Do you struggle to reconcile a good God with a hurting world?

We recognize that belief is hard. That's why:

- We value questions, and the people who ask them
- We prize being a community where you can belong before you believe
- We assume, each Sunday, that there are people present who are not convinced
- We desire to talk to skeptics not about them
- You are welcome here...

A woman's heart should be so hidden in God that a man has to seek Him just to find her.

Call to Worship

Psalm 66:1-6, 10-12

Shout for joy to God, all the earth!

Sing the glory of his name;
make his praise glorious.

Say to God, "How awesome are your deeds!

So great is your power that your enemies cringe before you.

All the earth bows down to you;

they sing praise to you,
they sing the praises of your name."

Come and see what God has done,
his awesome deeds for mankind!

He turned the sea into dry land,
they passed through the waters on foot—
come, let us rejoice in him.

For you, God, tested us;
you refined us like silver.

You brought us into prison and laid burdens on our backs.

You let people ride over our heads;
we went through fire and water,
but you brought us to a place of abundance.

Acclamation

Our King and Savior now draws near:

O come, let us adore him.

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty

words by Joachim Neander (trans. Catherine Winkworth)

music by Straisund Gesangbuch

(audio on Spotify here)

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!
O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!
All ye who hear, now to His temple draw near,
Join me in glad adoration.

Praise to the Lord, who o'er all things so wondrously reigneth,
Shelters thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth!
Hast thou not seen how thy desires e'er have been Granted in what He ordaineth?

Praise to the Lord, who doth prosper thy work and defend thee!
Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee;
Ponder anew what the Almighty can do
If with His love He befriend thee.

Praise to the Lord, O let all that is in me adore Him!
All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him!
Let the amen sound from His people again;
Gladly forever adore Him.

Confession

In the freedom the gospel provides, we are able to confess that we do not give the Lord the honor and praise of which he is worthy. So often, our meditations and concerns decenter God in our hearts and lives.

The psalmist leads us into prayer in Psalm 51:1-4, 7-12:

Have mercy on me, O God,
according to your unfailing love;
according to your great compassion blot out my transgressions.

Wash away all my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin.

For I know my transgressions,
and my sin is always before me.
Against you, you only, have I sinned
and done what is evil in your sight;
so you are right in your verdict and justified when you judge.

Cleanse me with hyssop, and I will be clean;
wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.

Let me hear joy and gladness;
let the bones you have crushed rejoice.
Hide your face from my sins
and blot out all my iniquity.

Create in me a pure heart, O God,
and renew a steadfast spirit within me.
Do not cast me from your presence or take your Holy Spirit from me.
Restore to me the joy of your salvation and grant me a willing spirit, to sustain me.

Let's acknowledge these things silently before the Lord, knowing forgiveness and rest are freely available in Jesus.

Receiving of Grace

from Ephesians 2:4-10

We serve a God of limitless power and might. Yet, in all of his power he looks on us with mercy, and draws us into his family, because of what Jesus Christ has done.

God, being rich in mercy,
because of the great love with which he loved us raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus,
so that in the coming ages he might show
the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus.

For by grace you have been saved through faith.
And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God,
not a result of works, so that no one may boast.

For we are his workmanship,
created in Christ Jesus for good works,
which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them.

God's grace abounds for us even in our weakness.

Let us remember the promise and hope of the gospel:

In Christ, we are set free. Amen.

the Reading

Isaiah 66:10-14

10 Celebrate with Jerusalem; be happy with her,
all you who love her!
Rejoice with her in joy,
all you who mourn over her,
11 so that you may nurse and be satisfied from her comforting breasts, that you may drink and be refreshed
from her full breasts.
12 The Lord says:
Look, I'm extending prosperity to her like a river,
and the wealth of nations like an overflowing stream.
You will nurse and be carried on the hip and bounced upon the knee.
13 As a mother comforts her child,
so I will comfort you;
in Jerusalem you will be comforted.
14 When you see this, your heart will rejoice;
your entire being will flourish like grass.
The Lord's power will be known among his servants,
but his fury among his enemies.

Galatians 6

1 Brothers and sisters, if a person is caught doing something wrong, you who are spiritual should restore someone like this with a spirit of gentleness. Watch out for yourselves so you won't be tempted too. 2 Carry each other's burdens and so you will fulfill the law of Christ. 3 If anyone thinks they are important when they aren't, they're fooling themselves. 4 Each person should test their own work and be happy with doing a good job and not compare themselves with others. 5 Each person will have to carry their own load.

6 Those who are taught the word should share all good things with their teacher. 7 Make no mistake, God is not mocked. A person will harvest what they plant. 8 Those who plant only for their own benefit will harvest devastation from their selfishness, but those who plant for the benefit of the Spirit will harvest eternal life from the Spirit. 9 Let's not get tired of doing good, because in time we'll have a harvest if we don't give up. 10 So then, let's work for the good of all whenever we have an opportunity, and especially for those in the household of faith.

11 Look at the large letters I'm making with my own handwriting! 12 Whoever wants to look good by human standards will try to get you to be circumcised, but only so they won't be harassed for the cross of Christ. 13 Those who are circumcised don't observe the Law themselves, but they want you to be circumcised, so they can boast about your physical body.

14 But as for me, God forbid that I should boast about anything except for the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ. The world has been crucified to me through him, and I have been crucified to the world. 15 Being circumcised or not being circumcised doesn't mean anything. What matters is a new creation. 16 May peace and mercy be on whoever follows this rule and on God's Israel.

17 From now on, no one should bother me because I bear the marks of Jesus on my body.

18 Brothers and sisters, may the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

Luke 10:1-20

1 After these things, the Lord commissioned seventy-two others and sent them on ahead in pairs to every city and place he was about to go. 2 He said to them, "The harvest is bigger than you can imagine, but there are few workers. Therefore, plead with the Lord of the harvest to send out workers for his harvest. 3 Go! Be warned, though, that I'm sending you out as lambs among wolves. 4 Carry no wallet, no bag, and no sandals. Don't even greet anyone along the way. 5 Whenever you enter a house, first say, 'May peace be on this house.'

6 If anyone there shares God's peace, then your peace will rest on that person. If not, your blessing will return to you. 7 Remain in this house, eating and drinking whatever they set before you, for workers deserve their pay. Don't move from house to house. 8 Whenever you enter a city and its people welcome you, eat what they set before you. 9 Heal the sick who are there, and say to them, 'God's kingdom has come upon you.' 10 Whenever you enter a city and the people don't welcome you, go out into the streets and say, 11 'As a complaint against you, we brush off the dust of your city that has collected on our feet. But know this: God's kingdom has come to you.' 12 I assure you that Sodom will be better off on Judgment Day than that city.

13 "How terrible it will be for you, Chorazin. How terrible it will be for you, Bethsaida. If the miracles done among you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have changed their hearts and lives long ago. They would have sat around in funeral clothes and ashes. 14 But Tyre and Sidon will be better off at the judgment than you. 15 And you, Capernaum, will you be honored by being raised up to heaven? No, you will be cast down to the place of the dead. 16 Whoever listens to you listens to me. Whoever rejects you rejects me. Whoever rejects me rejects the one who sent me."

17 The seventy-two returned joyously, saying, "Lord, even the demons submit themselves to us in your name."

18 Jesus replied, "I saw Satan fall from heaven like lightning. 19 Look, I have given you authority to crush snakes and scorpions underfoot. I have given you authority over all the power of the enemy. Nothing will harm you.

20 Nevertheless, don't rejoice because the spirits submit to you. Rejoice instead that your names are written in heaven."

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Holy, Holy, Holy

words by Reginald Heber; music by John B. Dykes

(audio on Spotify here)

Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty!
Early in the morning our song shall rise to Thee;
Holy, holy, holy, merciful and mighty!
God in three Persons, blessed Trinity!

Holy, holy, holy! All the saints adore Thee,
Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea,
Cherubim and seraphim falling down before Thee,
Who wert and art, and evermore shalt be.

Holy, holy, holy! Though the darkness hide Thee,
Though the eye of sinful man Thy glory may not see;
Only Thou art holy; there is none beside Thee,
Perfect in power, love, and purity.

Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty!
All Thy works shall praise Thy name in earth and sky and sea;
Holy, holy, holy, merciful and mighty!
God in three Persons, blessed Trinity!

Grateful Giving

Matthew 10:8

“Freely you have received,” Jesus said, “freely give.”

All we have is given to us by God. Our offerings express this joyful dependence as well as our commitment to join God in his work of renewal. He who met our most dire need through Christ will continue to provide for every need we have— so, whether we have much or little, God calls us to treasure and trust Him above all.

All gifts go toward ministry initiatives of All Souls and relief of those in need.

Prayers of the People

Almighty God,

grant that all who confess your name may be united in your truth, live together in your love, and reveal your glory in the world.

(Pray silently for the unity of the Church.)

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Guide the people of this land, and of all the nations, in the ways of justice and peace; that we may honor one another, restore wholeness, and serve the common good.

(Pray silently for justice and peace in all nations.)

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Give us all a reverence for the earth as your own creation, that we may steward it well, use its resources rightly in the service of others and to your honor and glory.

(Pray silently for our stewardship of the world.)

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Bless all whose lives are closely linked with ours,

and grant that we may serve them, and love one another as Christ loves us. (Pray silently for our love and service of others.)

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Comfort and heal all those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit;

give them courage and hope in trouble, and bring them the joy of your salvation.

(Pray silently for those in a season of suffering, isolation, or loss.)

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

And teach us to pray as you taught your disciples to pray, saying:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Doxology

words by Thomas Ken (1711)

music by OLD 100TH (alt.), attr. Louis Bourgeois (1561)

(audio on Spotify here)

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow

Praise him, all creatures here below

Praise him above, ye heavenly host

Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost

Amen

Grace and peace be with you!

And also with you.

Announcements

Women of All Souls: As we continue to emerge from pandemic life individually and as a community, we would love to gather with you this summer as a step toward more meaningful and continued connection in the coming year. Please join us for gatherings to simply BE together! All are invited to the home of Alyssa Reeve, July 17 at 6p, and to the home of Rachel Pelander, on August 21 at 6p. Bring a snack, treat, or drink to share... or simply come empty-handed! For more info and to RSVP, please contact Rachel Faunce (rachelfaunce@gmail.com).

Summer Bible Study for Women: Join for a 5-week study of the book of Joshua with a program called WordGo that includes brief daily personal study and weekly group discussion. Meetings are on Tuesdays at 8p at Charlotte Aljets' house, beginning June 28. Contact Katie Brown for more info (katiebrownvo@gmail.com).

Curious about membership at All Souls? Following an initial info session in April (recording available), we are hosting four 'Welcome' sessions this summer for conversation and food, reviewing the basics of what Christians believe about God's Kingdom, salvation, and the church (dates: June 3, 24; July 22; Aug 26). Participation is a required next step toward membership; please RSVP and send any questions to info@.

Calling Volunteers: As we find new, sustainable rhythms of life in this next season, we are seeking to grow our teams of volunteers, each who help to make Sunday gatherings possible. We invite you to join us!
To learn more and serve our community through volunteering, use QR code.

Summer break: Sunday school classes for kids (5th grade and younger) will pause for the summer beginning in July, resuming in September. Contact Suzanne Case with any questions (suzanne@).

Youth Group: Weekly student gatherings have paused through Labor Day... to make way for upcoming summer-themed socials for youth. Stay tuned! Contact Suzanne Case with any questions (suzanne@).

Giving as part of worship

While there are many ways to contribute financially to God's Kingdom, scripture says the Church is the primary means by which that kingdom is established on earth. So, God calls us first and foremost to be faithful in the regular, ongoing support of one's local church body through tithes and offerings. If you haven't made tithing a practice, please consider adopting this as a spiritual practice— that you might grow in faith.

We recognize, too, that as the church, we must consistently remind one another of the truth that everything we have is a gift from the Lord.

The Bible says that 'we know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for our sake he became poor, so that we through his poverty might become rich' (2 Corinthians 8:9). Jesus's death on the cross represents the most generous gift ever given—when he gave up everything in order to reconcile us to God.

Giving cheerfully, sacrificially, and consistently is a part of our worship—not because it's something churches do, but because giving in response to the gospel ought to be worshipful. When we are generous with others, we are reminding one another of the great generosity of our God.

All Souls seeks to build community, love our neighbors, and work for peace and justice within Seattle. Our desire in giving is not only to meet our own financial needs, but to be able to serve those in need in our city and neighborhoods.

There are a few ways that you can contribute financially to All Souls.
